

Frei Andreas

Fundamental neutron physics at the eastern neutron guide hall of the FRM-II

Abstract: Two new instruments for fundamental physics with neutrons are planned to be installed in the new eastern neutron guide hall of the FRM-II. At SR4 MEPHISTO, a measuring place with an intense beam of cold neutrons, will be installed. At SR6 exists the possibility to install the ultra cold neutron source MINI-D2. The layout of the two instruments will be presented.